Gospel: Luke 18:1-8

Early Christians repeated this story of the widow's fighting spirit, and the judge to one another. The accent sometimes fell on one character and sometimes on the other. Most could easily feel empathy with the widow. She had no clout in the community. She did not know the mayor of the town, or any county commissioner who might pull strings for her to have her case heard. All she could do was hound the judge, at the city gate, on the street, in the shops, at the court. Finally she defeated the judge without giving him a black eye. The widow became a model of how to pray and not to lose heart. Prayer is a primary task of all Christians, and like the widow, it will prevail in the end.

From the Pew

The parish thanks Denise Bohman, Laurie Hoge, Bonnie DeRutte, and others who worked the Rummage Sale. It never ceases to amaze me the interest people have in the hundreds of varieties of goods. One of the mysteries of life.

The Rummage Sale continues this weekend, to Sunday, 1PM.

St. Mary's Annual Parish Meeting. This Sunday after Mass at Grace Farley's home.

Next Sunday, 2nd Collection will be taken up at St. Cecilia's for the Parish Fountain Fund. Those interested in being a part of the fountain planning, 1st meeting, Thursday, Nov. 8th, at the Rectory.

Mona Tieche is moving to Mill Valley, end of October. We wish her happy trails and she will be missed.

The Parish Council recognizes that we have zero funds for social outreach. This is a concern we want to think about. How we go about this is yet to be addressed. But we want to be able to help our people in their financial times of need. I would appreciate input how best we can develop this program. It does not seem right that a parish has no fund for these needs.

Sunday, November 18th, 4 PM. Interfaith Ecumenical Celebration at St. Cecilia's.
