Gospel: John 6:41-51

Paul tells Ephesians to model their lives on the sacrifice of Christ, giving of oneself as best we can as Jesus lived his life for us. To turn from selfishness, bearing grudges, pettiness, spitefulness, hostility, uncivility – the practice of sacrifice is a prerequisite to the Christian way of life.

Sacrifice is the Jesus way.

Universal Church

According to the U.S. Census Bureau, between 1990 and 2000, the number of homes in which three or more generations live together grew by 38%. Pope John Paul II stated, "The elderly often have the charisma to bridge generation gaps before they are made." They spend hours talking to their grandchildren, attend soccer games, school plays, help with chores and give witness to a deep faith, attending Mass. GO GRAND-PARENTS!
