Gospel: John 6:60-69

The Eucharist has undergone changes throughout its history and continues to undergo revisions. Since Vatican II, major changes took place in how we celebrate Eucharist. Prior to Vatican II, the language of the Mass was in a language we did not understand – "Latin". Forty-six years later, it is in the language of our natural tongue. No laity were involved, no lectors, no Eucharistic ministers, no announcements, etc. No guitar music, only organ. Today, laity can plan, organize liturgies, retreats, and present professional academia at Eucharist.

During September, Fr. Lawrence Robinson, S.J. from Portland, Oregon, will be celebrating Masses at St. Cecilia's and St. Mary's. Fr. Larry plays golf, and he actively works in pastoral ministry both in the school and in local parishes. Before he comes, he is writing a manuscript for publication. For Sunday, August 30th, Fr. John Clougherty will celebrate Masses at St. Cecilia's/St. Mary. Give Fr. Larry and Fr. John a warm welcome and make them feel at home during their stays.

Fr. Joe Richard is working with the Dove House, a Dialogue and Career Discernment Center in South San Francisco. Fr. Joe is looking for Catholic books and psychological books for his Dove House. If you would like to donate your books in these subject matters, please contact Bonnie DeRutte at 488-9436.

The Opening of the San Geronimo Community Gym and Loft Teen Center will be on Saturday, August 29th at the SGVCC. Here are the upcoming events supporting the gym and teen center completion: ★ Chavez Family Free Throw Marathon, August 27th – 29th, ★ Valley Games II – Saturday, August 29th. For flyer on how to participate, contact Mike Davidson, St. Cecilia's CYO Basketball, ph: 488-9535, email: valleyhoops@comcast.net.

Universal Church

There is a new Mass text in thanksgiving for the gift of human life. This Mass and its singular liturgical prayers was first considered in 1990. It will now be a part of the future missal editions.

The Latin Mass is now called the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite Mass.

Erika Anna Keitner received her 1st Holy Communion, accompanied by Patti & Tom Egan.
