Gospel: John 18:33-37

The Kingdom of Jesus

Jesus said, 'My kingdom is not of this world.'
Jesus does not rule as earthly kings rule.
He has no place, no throne, no crown, no army.
Yet we give him an allegiance and a loyalty,
Which we would not give to any other person
Or institution on earth.
Alone and unarmed he stood before Pilate.
Pilate, had thousands of soldiers to call upon.
Jesus had no soldier to call upon.
Yet Jesus was incomparably the greater of the two.
Jesus is the hope of the human race.
He rules, not by force, but by love.
Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come,
And may you remember me on that day.

Pope Benedict XVI's visit to Africa this summer was greeted by 100,000s of Africans, but the Italian media, journalists, television were cynical, rude, scoffing to the point of vulgar laughter, hideous humor at the Pope. Of all that he spoke on, they were only interested in one topic – Aids. The Italian Episcopal Conference has since stated, "We will not have our Pope treated with such disrespect by professionals who have no theology or ridicule serious minded religious issues. These professionals lack credence and are beyond reasoning. In the future, any journalists who collude in this kind of uncivil behaviour, we will not be communicating with them."
