Gospel: Luke 1:1-4

Luke writes his Gospel 50 years after Jesus's death. Many Gospels have already been written about Jesus life though most unsatisfactorily. So Luke attempts to write a Gospel for his gentile community, not knowing that his account will be the third Gospel for future generations, and Luke himself never met Jesus Christ.

Universal Church

The Catholic Gregorian University in Rome is 456 years old. For the first time in its long history, it has offered to a non-Catholic a permanent contract to teach at the University.

U.S. Catholics represent 5.9% of the universal church. Some ponder how the US has 13 cardinals eligible to vote for the next Pope while Brazil which has 14% of the world's Catholic population has only 4 cardinal electors. It is a discrepancy the Latin African Churches are asking.
