Gospel: Luke 15:1-32

The prodigal son has the mindset, let the good times roll, for life is all games and fun; and responsibility and reasonableness has no purpose to my days despite the inevitable ruination to himself and to others that is sure to follow. He knows his self destructive behaviours yet refuses to deal with it. Until he learns self disciple, sacrifice, gets a lid on narcissism, gross selfishness, he will never change and is someone to stay away from because he'll ruin you along with himself.
