Gospel: John 16:12-15

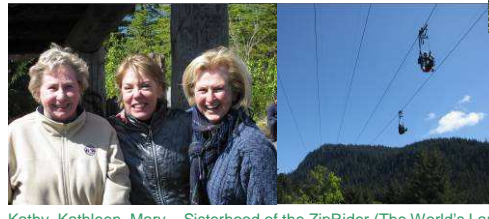

Everyone has their own self understanding of who someone else is. Be it positive or negative, confused or bemused, serious or silly, academic or athletic, and so on. Jesus gave us his description of who he is. Have we understood the manifestation of his being?

From the Pew:

We thank Fr. Joe Richard who gracefully helped out celebrating Sunday Masses while Fr. O' was away. Welcome back parishioners who went on the Alaska Cruise. While we had unusual rainfalls in the Valley during this time of year, the parishioners were blessed with great weather during their trip in Alaska.

St. Cecilia Golf Tournament and Dinner, Fri., June 11th, at San Geronimo Golf Course. $150 Golf & Dinner, $50 Dinner only. Raffle and auction. Invite your friends and families to come and support this major fund-raiser for St. Cecilia's Church. For reservation and raffle tickets, or if you would like to donate, contact Ginny 488-9694.

Last week, the hot water boiler for the rectory and parish hall broke. The parish hall was flooded. Thanks to Joe Walsh and Aidan O'Sullivan for their quick response in minimizing the damage.

This week, weekday Masses are 8 a.m. Monday, Tuesday, Friday at St. Cecilia's. No Mass on Wednesday and Thursday.

Around the end of June, we send out the check to the Archdiocese for the Annual Archbishop's Annual Appeal (AAA). As of now, we have yet to raise sufficient money for the full amount. This would mean we will have to make up the difference by using our operating funds. If you are planning to donate towards the AAA, please send your donation as soon as you can. Every parishioner should have the financial responsibility to the AAA. This is only fair to the community. Thank you for all who have supported.
