Gospel: Luke 12:13-21

This is a powerful story of weighing one's life against the time and energy one puts into this world in parallel to the eternal life to come, and how do those scales balance. It seemed Christ enjoyed the life of this world, he drank, partied and played. He had fun, but he also enjoyed the life of the soul and of the spirit. The balance made him a complete man, as it does for any man or woman.
