Gospel: Luke 13:22-30

Luke reminds his community that Jesus is on his way to Jerusalem so these passages of Jesus' words take on new significance. When we love people, we want to be with them always. We are also asked to love God that we may be where He is one day.

- Sunday 11:15 a.m. ... Roy Winchester

From the Pew:

The Installation of the Fountain is today, 4 p.m. at St. Cecilia's. The blessing of the installation of the fountain will take place and we wish to thank all the hard workers, parish members and friends, who contributed countless hours in this project. All are welcome. Musicians will be performing at the event. Bring a side dish and beverages to add to the picnic table.

Fr. O' will be away visiting his family in Ireland until the end of Sept. Our parish is thankful to Bishop Bill Justice, Fr. Joe Richard, Fr. Jerome Cudden, OP, Fr. Anthony Roservear, OP for celebrating Sunday Masses at St. Cecilia's & St. Mary's. Please extend the Valley hospitality and welcome them during their visits.

Parish Finance Council Meeting, today, 1 p.m. at the Drady's home.

Parish trip to Death Valley is in planning for February 2011. A deposit of $150 for those who are interested to go. Contact Margaret Farley for reservations, 488-0122.

Universal Church

Considerable discussion regarding mosque plans at Ground Zero. In the 1980's, Carmelite nuns wished to build a convent on the edge of Auschwitz. Both sides dug in. Pope John Paul II wrote asking the sisters not to build, "Having the right to do something doesn't mean it is the right thing to do."

"Is cremation against church theology?" Cremation is now permitted by the church though it is requested the body be present for the Mass, and cremation to follow after the service.

St. Mary's, Nicasio	.... $ 445.00
